Bio

Djing/producing since '97, Toronto-born accomplice is a genre slut well known from his early days of holding down residencies with iDJ, and the legendary Junglist Fridays at Blue Dog, both in Montreal. He resided in Seoul, South Korea for five years where, with the Breakbeat Massive, accomplice was regularly featured at one off events in and around Seoul (including in front of 50,000 people at the Pentaport Festival in 2008), a monthly resident at the legendary Vinyl Underground in Busan, a weekly resident at Freebass Fridays, and a resident of Konkrete Jungle Seoul at Club Cargo. Now representing DJ in Muskoka (DJinMuskoka.com) up in cottage country, accomplice can be found rocking the decks at private events 52 weeks of the year.

The pandemic saw accomplice locked in an underground bunker north of Toronto called The Holding Cell, recording live one-shot recordings and uploading these to SoundCloud. Since then accomplice has been slutting it up at All Over The Space and other proper parties. You can also find accomplice releases out on Celestial Conspiracy, Substruk Records, Bludclot Recordings, Monkey Dub Recording, and Steppaheadz Recordz on all major platforms.
